Friends of Youth Alive Trust

What is Friends of Youth Alive Trust?

It is a group of people who give one-off and regular financial donations to support our ongoing work with eastside young people and whanau. It is very difficult to raise our operational costs, and we rely on the discretionary donations from Friends of YAT to cover shortfalls. Recent Friends of YAT donations have covered counselling costs, volunteer expenses, subsidies to cover young people who can't afford camps or other programmes, new resources and equipment, fixing the vans and other miscellaneous costs we don't have grants to cover.

Breakdown of Income 2018

Contracts	32.4%
Fees	32.3%
Grants	21.1%
Friends of YAT	8.6%
Church Donation	3.4%
Fundraising	0.7%
Enterprise	0.9%
Sponsorship	0.3%
Interest	0.3%

How can I give?

There are a few options. Most people set up an Automatic Payment, and make a weekly, fortnightly or monthly donation. It is also possible to give through PayRoll Giving if your employer gives that option, and others have given just one-off donations when they can through bank transfers, cheque or eftpos at reception. Some have made Bequests to us in their Wills as a way of continuing to leave your legacy. At the end of the financial year (after 31st March) we send you a receipt of all donations, and then encourage you to send it to IRD, and claim one third of it back!! Bonus!! Some have donated that rebate straight back to us and others have used it as a small savings scheme.
